Zelda majora s mask characters

Link

This is a list of characters found in Mallora's mask. The main character links main article: Link after defeating Gannondorf at the end of the ocarina of time, the link was sent back seven years by Princess Zelda to recreate the time he lost when he was sealed in the sacred realm. Sent back before he ever touched the master sword, he spent time with the young Zelda, getting close to her [1][2], when he decided to set out to find a beloved and valuable friend, she told him to give him an ocarina of time and remember the song of time, asking for the help of the Goddess of Time [3]. Crawling in Evona, he was ambushed in the woods by two fairies named Tattle and Taeil, and stolen from the ocarina of his horse and time by a mysterious mimp, the Skeleton Kid, with a strange mask. After the imp, he finds himself transformed into a decu scrub by the imp, using the power of the mask he is wearing to come down a hole in the terminus. With Tati's slightly reluctant help, the link finds its own way to the clock village and finds that it remains very close to the moon and falls in 3 days. At midnight on the third night, Link learns that the skeleton child is behind the inevitable fall of the moon. He can return to Ocarina and move back in time three days ago. With the help of a Happy Mask salesman, he finds himself in a quest to prevent the moon from falling into terminus before time is running out, which he can revert to his Hylian form. Main article: Deku Link This is the form of force the skull child on the link after the latter follows him to Termina. The link, believed to be based on the spirit of Deku Butler's son, is trapped in this form for the first three days of the Terminus. After recovering from The Ocarina of Time, he travels back in time and learns a song of healing by a happy mask salesman. This puts the spirit on the decu mask that he can remove converting back, or worn back as a decu link. As a decu, the link is vulnerable to fire and cannot swim. He can jump over the surface of the water, but only for a limited time (5 times). I can pain it using deku flowers. Once he is burrowed into them, he can start himself and fly for a while. He can also drop the deku nut to the suspicious enemy below. And finally, he can use his magic by shooting bubbles that can damage enemies and burst objects. Ocarina of time turns into a pipe of awakening when held by his decu form. Main article: The Goron Link consists of the spirit of the great Goron warriors, Darmani, the strong form of the Goron Link physically link. The link is the first to reach the snowhead, climb the cliffs leading to Darmani's tomb, and then change it. After Damani soothes his regrets about the healing song, his essence becomes a high-nosed mask. When wearing a goron mask, the link is impermeable to lava, but it can drown. Because of his circumference. He can roll the ball and take advantage of the magic to destroy obstacles and take out spikes that can damage the enemy. He can use his power to punch enemies or carry powder barrels. Another attack that uses his force is the Goron Pound, which is very useful when hitting a curing switch. The link's ocarina takes the form of a drum when it is in this transformation. Main article: Zora Link created in the spirit of Zora guitarist, Michau, this is another form that links can change during the game when he wears a Zora mask. He finds Michau injured in the waters of the Great Bay, brings him to shore, and receives this mask after discovering that he is soothed by a healing song. This effectively forms their essence in the Zora mask. In this form, the link is vulnerable to fire and ice, but the water is greatly increased. He can take advantage of Zora's natural abilities to breathe underwater and walk the ground under water to attack. He can use his fins to attack enemies with a mix of punches and kicks and can be used as a boomerang-like weapon. You can create an electric force field that can magically attack and defend against enemies. Main article: Happy Mask Salesman Termine, Link, first meets the salesman at the watch tower and asks Deku Link to tell him how the skeleton kid took the mask and asked him to come back. He also says that if the link can get his Ocarina back, he can teach him a song that will turn him back into his normal form. He claims to have three days to stay in the watch town, so he needs a link to retrieve it before that. The link searched for their ocarina during the last night, but failed to get a mask. The mask salesman teaches him a healing song, but after learning the link, he gets very angry and begins to shake the link wildly. Then he revealed the story of the mask – talking about its true power, how the lack of ancient people who used it sealed it, then how he went to great lengths to get that legendary mask he was obsessed with. Stolen, he warns of the importance of terminus or survival. Main article: According to The Marora's Mask Happy Mask Salesman, Mayor's mask was once used as a tool by tribes in the sixty-six ceremony. A tribe that believes that masks could one day cause a fatal event has been sealed forever with shadows to prevent someone from using it for evil purposes. The Happy Mask Salesman remained in the shadows until he was found, and it was his possession until the skeleton child attacked him and stole his mask. After being taken to him, the mask began to capture the skull child's heart and led him to do something terrible. After the link called four giants to block the moon, it was revealed that Mallorya's mask used the Skeleton Child as a puppet for his own purposes. It tempts the link to go inside the moon to fight. After the mask The Happy Mask Salesman now recovers the possessions of powerless objects and disappears with them. Main article: Skull Eye prank scuffs to ambush the link at the beginning of the game. The skeleton child became friends with the Four Giants until he left to protect Termina while he slept. He was angry at their departure and started playing pranks on people. He was also once a member of the bomber and was kicked out of the game. Later, to some extent, he met Tattle and Tae, seeking refuge from the storm. They soon became friends. He then came into contact with a Happy Mask Salesman and attacked him and stole Mayor's mask. After catching the mask, the skeleton child was possessed by the force of the mask and ultimately began to play his prank to the next level, slowly down to the moon. Text: Tattle Tattle is a friend of The Skeleton Child and the sister of Taeli. She was converted to a link, Deku, and then separated from the two in an attempt to follow them. After she went to watch town and helped her search for her ocarina, she found herself helping to link to his new quest to save Thermita. Unlike butterflies in ocarina of time, Tattle has an attitude. She also worries a lot about her brother and when she's away from him at the beginning of the game. When she sees Taeli talking about how to prevent her from being born, she sees how to stop him, realizes the seriousness of the situation, and knows that she has to stop him. Article: Anjushin is a stockport innkeeper who apologizes constantly and cares as a terrible cook. The inn was a restaurant, but after the death of His father, Tortus, he started renting a room and became an inn. She lives in an inn with her mother and grandmother. Her best friends are Cremia from a Romanian ranch, her fiancée is Cafe, the son of Mayor Dotur and Madame Aroma. They were scheduled to get married on carnival day of time, but Cafei disappeared a month before the game began. The main side quests of the game include reuniting the café and snacks. If the link is successful, they will exchange their wedding masks and become a married couple on the third night, with Link and Tati as their witness. Anju and Cafei give Link a couple mask, a combined mask, and say they will wait for breakfast together. After the link completes this side quest, save thermita, and Anju and Caffei i celebrate the wedding during the credit period. Note: Grandma Anju,Grandma's grandmother, Tortus's mother, lives in the bedroom just below the room of her granddaughter and daughter-in-law, and fakes the old age so that she doesn't have to eat the food she makes, as shown in her diary. Even in the absence of snacks, Tortus's link seems to be mistaken. She loves to read stories and will read them in the links. This story is so long that the link makes you fall asleep in the middle. Link can only hear her story on the first and second day - on the third day, she will not allow it by telling her that she is late and will tell him tomorrow. Grandma gives links to two heart pieces for each story, one for each story, as a reward that persists throughout both stories. Complete her section from the bomber's laptop and you will be done. Main article: The Secret Society of Bomber Justice is a group of children who are fully known as the Bomber Secret Society of Justice, bombers are committed to making people happy. To access the Astral Observatory, the link must tell you the route to keep the bomber's password. He can be obtained by hiding with five bombers, including his current leader, Jim. After returning to his Hylian form, Link can get the bomber's laptop back by playing hide-and-peek or ending the path to be faced by Jim to give the code. There are 20 spaces for these 20 different people or groups who are happily assigned to the link. This includes the bomber itself, which automatically fills the section when the link gets the journal, and contains a password if you need to remember it. As a child, Cafei was a member of the bomber gang. The skeleton child was also a member before he was kicked out because of the prank he was pulling. Main article: Cremia eldest son of two Romanian ranch sisters, Cremia became the owner of a Romanian ranch after the death of her father. She works to care for the ranch and romanian cattle that make the ranch's trademark chateau Romania. She finds it difficult to do this because of the disturbance of brother Gorman and her skeleton child. She is the main guardian of her sister Romania, and has recently worried about her due to her obsession with them. She thinks Romania is lying, doesn't realize they exist, and if she doesn't stop, she'll take romania. She is also a good friend of the stockport inn's inn keeper, and she has secretly expressed her feelings about her fiancée Cafe. This makes it difficult to come to town with the knowledge that her pair will soon get married. She has developed a friendship with Aju, allowing her and her family to seek refuge on the ranch in the coming fall. Nevertheless, she knows that there is no way to avoid the moon crash, and that none of them will live to see the morning. Main article: Gorman Gorman is the leader of the Gorman Troupe, a traveling circus for performers who will be performing at the Carnival of Time. The two criminal Gorman brothers living on the Gorman Track are each of his age and brother, and he feels that he is the second son of the family's contempt. Gorman's troupe was scheduled to perform with Indigo Gowa at the carnival, but the entire set was cancelled when lead singer Lulu lost his voice. Instead of talking to the extremes Gorman spends his time drowning grief at the latte milk bar. With the help of Indigo's manager, Toto, he can interrupt the ballball of the windfish on stage and remind him why Gorman went into the show business. Resurrected, he gives the circus leader's mask to the link and apologizes for his disrespect. During the final credits, indigo-goofy can be seen playing in the Goman Troupe and Milk Bar. Gorman can be seen watching from behind the counter. Main Story: The Elder and Brother of The Gorman Brothers, the Gorman Brothers, owns and operates the Gorman Track, and unlike his brother, it is malicious, dishonest, and criminal. They plan to acquire the milk business in every way they can, including stealing and spreading lies about more Romanian ranches down the milk road. On the second night, if the link opened the way to the Romanian ranch and helped The Romaniandefeat them, he would have to defend the Cremia and milk bottled goods of the Gorman Brothers so that she could reach the clock town. He can also challenge the Gorman Brothers in horse racing. If he wins them twice in a row, they will reluctantly give him a mask of horizontality, a mandatory entry to enter Icana Canyon. If Link speaks with Brother Gorman wearing the mask of Gorman's circus leader, they have sentimental sentiments through the middle brother and beg him to take off the mask, and we are the infamous Gorman brothers! We can't get all the sappy through these things! Main article: Grog grog is a quiet type, and the only thing he really cares about is his cuccos. He can be found inside the Kuco shack of a Romanian ranch. His only regret for the impending destruction of Termina is that he can't see his latest batch of cuco chicks growing up as cocks. The link can help the chicks of the grog reach maturity by using the Bremen mask and ocarina of time. Together, the link accelerates the growth of the chicks, allowing them to turn into roosters in minutes. Grog sees a small, grown-up kuco chick and feels perfect, and rewards his links to the rabbit hood with his help. The only item that enters Grog's bomber's laptop is a rabbit hood. This notebook describes Grosand as a Kuco enthusiast. Main article: Expert-Expert-Guru is a member of the Gorman Troupe, a band of performers set to perform at the Carnival of Time. Practice your instruments from Stockport Inn to dusk every night during the day. After nightfall, you can find it in the laundry pool southwest of the clock town. He tells Link a rather long and personal story about the animal troupe he belongs to, where the dog was the leader. Due to jealousy, experts-experts stole the mask. Thanks to his conscience, expert-experts rewarded the Bremen mask main article and link: The café was a member of the bomber when he was a child, Andy is the son of the mayor Dotour. Madame Aroma, and engaged in snacks, innkeepers at Stockpot When he changed him as a skeleton child, the eventof the game disappeared a month ago; Then, when watches to seek help from the great fairy in the village, Sakon stole his wedding mask, the sun mask from him. The double-strike hid in the back room of Madame Aroma, and rumored circulated that he had gone to Gronai Ranch with Cremia. When Link pulls Out Cafei's mask from Madame Aroma, Cafe's mother links to Linkwork to investigate her son's disappearance. When The Link finds him, Cafe explains that she can't see her snacks without keeping her promise to greet her with a wedding mask. But he pulls out his mask and still plans to marry her during the carnival of time. He then asks Him to tell him to wait for him to return, and gives him a pendant of remembrance as proof that they have met. When Cafei finally sees Sakon trying to sell the stolen goods to the Kurosi shop, he follows the thief back to his hideout in Ikana Canyon. With the security system enabled, Kafai and Link must work together to repair the mask before it falls into a hole. After returning with a mask, Cafei returns to the village where he waits for the snacks to return. With only a few minutes left until the moon fell, the two finally met again and exchanged vows. Afterwards, Anju and Cafei give Link a couple mask, which is a combined mask, and eventually wait for breakfast together, and the wedding of The Snack and Café I can be seen from his point of view. At his height, he seems to have returned to his true self. Main Article: Camaro Kamaro is a ghost who was once a talented dancer. He can be seen dancing mysteriously in the moonlight from midnight to 6 am on one of the mushroom-shaped rocks of northern Termina Field. He speaks completely in the verse, but follows the translation after all the secret lines of his conversation. When he passed away, he was filled with regret because he wanted to teach him well to dance. After Link plays a healing song to Kamaro, he asks Link to make his dance public, and then he awards him a mask of Camaro and moves forward. Camaro's entry on the bomber's laptop describes him as charismatic, lovers of moonlight. Healing the spirit of the Camaro is the only activity needed to complete the section of the laptop. She is also regarded as a firm believer in Thermina's defender four Giants. On the first day at midnight, she is assaulted in her large bag of explosives stolen by North Clocktown and Sakon. If the link knocks with a knife from Sakon's hand, he's far away from Frans, and grandma can retrieve her bag. Thanks to this, she will give a link explosion mask, and a large bomb bag will be available in the bomb shop. If the link allows Sakon to escape, she is terribly disappointed and lonely and begins to walk back to the bomb shop. In this case, the link is not compensated and the large bomb bag cannot be used within the cycle. If a link explodes the bag with a projectile and kills Sakon, a similar result occurs. Snack/Cafe Reunion Questcan only be completed on cycles where links do not intervene to help grandmothers. Article: Postman The postman is a hard-working postman in Watch Town who lives and works at a post office in West Clock town when he doesn't collect or deliver his watch. He is committed to his work to the point of obsession, and strictly follows his schedule. On the first afternoon (and the second day if certain conditions are met) The Link can play a mini-game with him at the post office, the post office can play a mini-game with him at the post office, and the post office challenges him to count exactly 10 seconds. If the link fails, you can try again with two rupees per attempt, and if the postman succeeds, you can give a piece of heart. The postman plays a major role in reuniting the café and snacks by delivering messages to each other. On the first day he can be seen delivering a letter that Cafe i posted that morning in stockport inn. When he receives the parcel, he asks the scribe to tell him where to refuse to answer. On the second day, when The Link sends a letter to the café he gave him, the postman delivers the letter to the café in the laundry pool. The postman wants refuge with other villagers leaving the clock village, but forcing him to follow his schedule prevents him from doing so without permission. He can only get this permission friends of the link. They were ambushed by a skeleton child and his two fairies and when the link regained consciousness, the skeleton child took off from Evona with a link hanging on the skull child's leg as they went. After the link lost grip and the skeleton kid ran into an empty log with Evona, she was not seen late in the match on a Romanian ranch. Unlike OoT she was optional is essential to get more out of the game. She has to overcome obstacles to access the Great Bay and Ikana Canyon, so the link can get more from his quest. Main article: Evan Zora, leader of the band, composer, pianist, indigo goofy. He is sensitive to other band members who are writing songs, repeatedly angry about Mikau and Zapas composing themselves. He seems to be highly respected by the band as he appears to follow his advice and orders outside of the band. Lulu and Mikau in particular. Tizo is known for writing songs on Evan's back, but he seems to be listening to him. However, Mikau does this with Japas, so it doesn't make much sense. When the band's singer Lulu lays a mysterious egg and loses his voice, he immediately seeks advice from Evan. He encourages her to take her eggs to the Marine Laboratory for inspection, but gerudo is stolen by pirates. He then tells Miko to recover the eggs and to recover them because they have the blood of Zora's heroes. He also tells Mikau how to find an empty bottle. His knowledge of him and Mikau's lineage suggests that he is very familiar. He keeps the troubled secrets in the rest of the band, except for his manager Toto, so as not to destroy their hopes of playing at the carnival of time. If a link disguised as Mikau can present a song to Evan after a jam session with Japas, Evan immediately became angry about not being satisfied with his song, and says it's his job to write and write from behind. He will accept the song only if the link plays to him in a form other than his Zora one, and he will immediately take credit for it. The song will later be played during the band's rehearsal, and will be played again in the milk bar during the carnival of time. One of the other Zoras says his usual song sounds a lot different. When Evan visits his room, he plays the theme through out the game from Zelda's original legend on the piano. Main article: The Frog Choir's Turinian counterpart of the cool five frog tenors from Ocarina of the time. A famous frog choir from Snowhead is performing at a lily in a pond in Mountain Village, but fled when the Northern Mountain was caught in a blizzard from Snowhead Temple. The Frog Choir has five members, with the exception of legendary conductor Don Gero. When the snow in Mountain Village is thawed, you'll find the choir's lead singer, and the choir's performance will begin, but other members don't know about it because they're not in snowhead. Another member lives in the southern swamp, and another member can be found in the laundry pool of the watch town. The last two have been transformed into Gekkos, each living as a mini-boss in one of the two dungeons. Woodfall Temple and the Great Bay Temple. If the link acquires Don Gero's mask, the Frog Choir thinks he's a long-separated don gerro himself, and he can collect them (including the man in the temple, after he defeated them and then freed them from his gecko form) in the Mountain Village where the choir performs. After that, the link is awarded as a piece of heart. Main article: One of the two blacksmiths living in the only house in the mountain village, San Smithy. Gabora is a big man who moans pointlessly that only his partner, Zubora, can understand. Zubora claims that Gabora is as smart as all the fights and decu sticks, but gabora appears to be able to think of things that Zubora doesn't do, but it's unclear whether this is true or not. Gabora is very insulting and rude, but he doesn't seem to care about what zubora orders. Gabora also seems to be the only person who does the work of a real blacksmith. When the Northern Mountain freezes due to snowhead blizzards, the stove freezes and blacksmiths can't do anything. The use of hot water to thaw the stove is gabor, but Zubora ignores him and once again insults his intellect. The link is a man who melts ice into the stove and allows two men to operate the knife. Gabora was immediately ordered to make a link coffee, but later he only works on The Link's Sword, and jubora accepts the merits of his work. During the ending credits, Gabora can be seen at the Milk Bar, indicating that he and Jubora attended the carnival of time. Main article: Honey and Darling Honey and Darling make a comeback from Ocarina of time, but this time it actually plays a role. PdA's adorable pigeon king and queen now owns a shop in Watch Town, a honey and darling shop called. Inside the shop, honey and darlings hold each other on a pedestal in the middle of the room. They are always holding hands and looking into each other's eyes. They act brilliantly towards the link, and overall they don't treat him well. They are video game representations of those overly unpleasant couples that everyone eventually finds. Fortunately, Link can smash your soul by earning the perfect score for each match for three consecutive days. To play, the link will tell them and you have to pay 10 rupees. On the first day, their game is spring and autumn bowling. On the second day, it's bomb basketball, and the third is basically just archery target practice. On the first and second day, honey and darlings will reward the link with 50 rupees. If the link ends up beating out completely on the last day, they will give him a piece of mind. As the game clears up, the two will begin to doubt their happiness. But if the link wants to upset them without having to suffer all the problems, he can come in 3 days and play archery games. Instead of targeting a link, you should target it. And Darling himself. If you hit him, they yell at him, and if you hit him too many times, cancel the game. Sometimes losing 10 rupees is worth getting rid of frustration, and honey and Darling's house is the place to do it. Main article: Indigo Go's Indigo-Go Butt and Zora Cape is a band that takes place right away. The band consists of five members and four members. When Link found the band's guitarist Michau, he was weak and would die. The link relieves his soul and transforms him into a Zora mask, thus giving him a Mikau identity. So if you've already purchased a Zora mask, congratulations! Now it's part of indigo go. Other members of the band are Lulu, Tizo, Evan and Zapas. Japas is a bass player with a cool surfer attitude and a craving for jam sessions. Evan leads the band, plays the keyboard, and when the link meets him, he struggles to come up with new material. Tizo plays drums, and also shares a room with Mikau. And most importantly, Lulu is the lead singer, and the loss of her eggs and voice is a big aspect of the Great Bay conspiracy. Perhaps most surprisingly, the band managed to keep it together for a generation, but the two. The band is currently the second incarnation of Indigo. The girl, now known as Lulu, is the daughter of Lulu. The band will be playing for the festival of time. But lulu's eggs were stolen before the link arrived in Termina. When the egg disappears, she mysteriously begins to lose her voice. The band's manager, Toto, left without a voice and traveled to Watchtown to cancel the Time Festival. The reason for clearing the Great Bay Temple is the time festival, where lulu's voice needs to be restored and indigo-friendly time. Main article: Japas Japas is an indigo long-haired, laid-back bassist. He spends his time playing bass in Zora Cape's room. The only time he leaves the room is when the doctrine dies and the Great Bay Temple is completed and performed with Indigo Go. The fins on his hair mimic long straight hair, adding to the rock star personality he offers. In addition, the sheet music spreads throughout the room, adding to the image. When there was zora mask on the link, Japas mistook the link to Mikau, zora guitarist who was the source of the mask. In the impression that he is talking with his old band mate, Japas will ask JamLink. To complete a jam session with Japas, Link must find Japas's diary, where he wrote a note he expects to hear. Zoras will gather around the door to hear Link and Japas do a jam session. After the jam session is played, Japas suggests playing for Evan. However, he will also tell The Link that Evan is too strong to allow any of the others. contribute. To get rewarded for a jam session, the link is to go to Evan's room and play the jam session. However, if there is a Zora mask on the link, Evan will not use the melody because of his stubbornness. If the link is playing it, Evan will use the song and decide to give you a piece of mind about your problem, although all the links have copied notes that Japas has already recorded. But Zapas would have no problem, he's pretty cool. Main Article: Jim (Masof in Mayora) Jim is the leader of the Bomber Secrets Association of Justice. He is one of two members with a distinctive bandana color, and becomes red. Jim may find himself practicing with his blowgun by attempting to pop a balloon in North Clocktown, refusing to talk to the link if the link can't pop the balloon. When the link pops the balloon into deku, Jim compliments his ability, then gives a link to the code to the Bomber's Lair if he can pass his test. Jim calls the bombers and they play a game of hiding and seek with links. When Link finds all the kids, Jim says he did a pretty good job for Decu Scrub, and if he's a human, he can be a full member of the bomber. Still interested in joining the link, he asked another bomber but they unanimously joined Deku Scrub. Explain that Jim once joined a non-human (skeleton child) but regretted it. He says sorry for the link, but instead gives the code to the hideout. If Link goes back in time and then becomes a human and then plays the game again, Jim does explain to him everything about the bomber, awarding him the bomber's laptop. If the link remembers the password instead and enters the hideout without receiving the password from the luggage, the burden will come to him as he leaves the hideout. He praised him, assuming that the link should somehow figure out the code, wondering how the link got inside without taking his test for the code. Impressed by the link, he gives him a bomber's laptop anyway and says as a full member of him, he is a replacement for a skeleton kid who has violated his rules. Then he told Tatle to go out here because he had enough problems with the skeleton child. Once the link acquires the bomber's laptop and becomes a member, he won't speak back to Jim. Main Article: Kitten Keaton is the yellow fox creature that is the foundation of the Kitten mask. Kitten foxes stand as high as human links and have black tails floating up and down. To find a kitten fox, the link must obtain a mask inspired by the kitten itself. While wearing a kitten mask, the link can be slashed from a circular patch of moving bushes in North Clocktown, Milk Road, and Mountain Village (spring). When all the bushes are decomposed, the leaves gather in a circle and a kitten appears. With him, his theme is played, creepy use of traditional Japanese instruments. Fox continues to quiz the link Game-related questions. Keaton rewards the link to heart pieces when the link answers three questions correctly. When Link and Keaton finish the conversation, the kitten disappears again. Kitten foxes are based on the mythical Japanese creature Kitsune. Main article: Connecting Goron (Mallora's Mask) can guarantee that the mask of Mayora has a different character of the same name. He wants to have a warm place to sleep, just as the link is a poor thief. He wore a backpack, hat and bow tie, and probably came to town to watch for business. Link Goron is booked at Stockport Inn and will be charged after 4pm on the first day. However, if the link is to talk to the host at the reception desk between 2pm and 4pm, Linkgoro will provide a room scheduled for the regular link. The link tries to claim his room so when the link goron comes in at 4pm. A confused annotator would deny Linkgoro, and he would have to spend the night outside. This confusion arises from the voice pattern of the link goron, which forces him to say goron after every sentence. On the first night, Link Goron can be found sleeping in the awning in front of the Stockport Inn (aw). If the link tells him, he will accurately predict the rain in the morning. Poor, poor, link-to-go. Main article: Mamamu Jan Mamamu Yan is an extremely passionate dog lover. Link to find her at her racetrack at the southern end of a Romanian ranch. Mamamu Yan has a lovely version of the dog racing track with a mini schauzer (like that in South Clocktown). However, the cuteness of the dog does not prevent Mamamu Yan from placing a bet, and the link is a gamble that can earn a piece of heart. To place a bet, The Link must physically pick up the dog he is betting on and bring him to Mamamu Jan. Then, the link can place a bet on their choice. If the dog of the link comes in the first place, the link gets triple disallowed their bet. The second place doubles the bet, and the breakeven point from the third to fifth place. If the link can earn 150 rupees in the race, Mamamuan will be added to the bonus prize of a piece of mind. However, the best dogs are not always easy to find. Without the mask of truth, it is almost impossible. Masks of truth, masks with the power to hear animal thoughts, are useful for gambling. When the link lifts the dog over his head while wearing a mask of truth, he will be able to hear how the dog feels. The more confident the dog was, the more likely it was to win. With this mask, Link can always find a dog that can be placed at least one-fifth if it finds the most confident dog. Puppy Racecourse is sometimes a bit shabby, but Mamamu Jan manages to unleash the dog race as a lovely game to get a piece of heart from the rink. Main article: Man in trading post faces smiling behind shop full of half useless It is a man of trading post who runs a shop during the day. He is a polite and polite young man. Links can be purchased from him for various items, most can be found in cutting grass, pots, etc. He came to terms with a limited selection of shops and even admitted it to the link at the time. Before the link interacts with him he can find constantly scratching his back, cursed by impossibility itching. The deal post men operates from 6am to 9pm, and is then covered by part-time staff. Men in trading posts react differently to what mask links they are wearing, such as deformation masks or regular masks. In most cases, he will complement the look of the link. On the other hand, the look of the trading post man is strangely familiar to the owner of the curious shop. Even the same sound bytes are used in his voice. But this is never proven and is to keep it open for interpretation. It is another mystery from the game chock full of the unknown. Main article: The Moon Children's Game Marora's Mask makes an unexpectedly quiet turn after the link gets sucked into the moon. The interior of the moon is a peaceful meadow, and children revolve around trees. These children are children of the moon, or children of the moon, they are naive and playful children and have dark undertones. Save one, each month's kids will find wearing masks in previous boss fights. All the kids want to play with the links, and their game of choice is Hide'n'seek. However, each person asks the link for a mask before and after the game. Giving them a mask is strictly optional, but it is a requirement to get the best mask in the game, a fierce god's mask. Each game in Hide'n'seek is played in the selected arena. Each stadium is a challenge in its own way, and finding a child on the moon can be difficult. Each child will ask for as many masks as previously requested after it is found. For example, odd and a child ask for one mask before, and then ask for one mask. Each subsequent moon (the link defeated the mask) asks for one more mask before and one more mask. The children will all ask for 20 masks, and if all the links have not been collected, they will not be able to receive the fierce god's mask. A month's child seems to stand out from the crowd running around the tree. Then sitting on a tree trunk, the masked moon child of Mayora will fly silver while the other children are playing. If the link tells him, he will challenge the link to the fight. If the link gave 20 masks to other kids, he gave the link a fierce god's mask, saying he was playing with good guys and bad guys, and the link is bad. He teleports the link to face Mayora, and finally faces the link's greatest enemy. Main article: Mr. Batten is the owner of Latte, the only exclusive milk bar in The Watch Town, batten and the sole employee. The latte is open every night from 10am to 6am and is only available to players. Identification is allowed. If the link gets a Romanian mask from Cremia, he will be able to enter, and will also be able to buy milk from Mr. Batten. Mr. Batten sells two types of milk: Romanian milk, a chateau Romanian, which is very precious and very expensive premium milk. Romanian milk is served for two servings, each serving supplementing part of the link's health. Chateau Romania, on the other hand, offers unlimited link magic for the rest of the three-day rotation and is worth a price of 200 rupees. Mr. Batten does not fail to please in his bar, and is actually a very kind and courteous person to the person who runs such an exclusive establishment. Main article: Mutoh Mutoh is a stubborn and gentle carpenter romanian who builds towers in the South Clock town for the festival of time. Carpenters are paying attention to their missions, but Muto has other missions. In the mayor's office, Muto insists that captain Vinec and his soldiers should continue to run the carnival and schedule of time. Mutoh is the only city that doesn't sell to the fact that the moon is destined to fall, and it fights fiercely to keep the carnival on track. If the link does not address his claims with the couple's mask, Muto will win the debate, with Madame Aroma, threatening to speak to the mayor's wife in an attempt to cancel the carnival. Last night, Muto stood in front of the completed fireworks tower and tormented the moon. He basically looks at his eyes and doesn't budging. But after Link defeated Mayora, he ironically left the city with Captain Bischen and his soldiers. Main article: If ocean-side spider house residents link to clear ocean-side spider house before the end of the first night, a young man enters the entrance. If the link speaks with him, the young man will ask the link to give him a fortune, because he is looking for a place to find refuge before the moon falls. In exchange for the house the link has just been removed, the man gives the link a huge wallet that holds 500 rupees. If the link clears the house after the first day, he will give the link a gold rupee instead. This stranger really should have cleaned the house himself if he wanted it, but the huge purse is well worth the problem with the link. Main Article: If the Fierce Sinlink Link collects all 20 regular masks and gives them to the Children of the Moon, the link will receive a fierce God's Mask from the Children of the Marora Moon just before the final battle. In this form, The Link wields a double helix knife that requires both hands. The knife also has the ability to shoot the sword beam, the link is given to have enough magic. It is is not to explain who was a fierce god, or where the mask came from. The only information about the mask seems to be from the children of Mayora Dahl, who The confidence of the link, the source is the most unreliable. The name Oni Link comes from japanese translation. Direct translation, fierce new links will be ogre links. However, due to cultural differences, american and British audiences are known for their rarest appearances in the game. Main article: Unlike his courteous and friendly colleagues, the part-time staff of the trade post is arrogant and self-centered idiots. After 10 pm, we will acquire a store that has the same choice as before. Part timerist is very self-absorbed, and overall it's just enjoyable. He wants to find a girlfriend and get married and is also apparently part of the band. He is also a fan of Indigo Go and says he will go to concerts in town. While he is not working, part-time workers can be found in East Termina Field near the Observatory, sitting in a tree trying to get some rupees from that one. He helps link in any way besides selling his goods and tapping the garbage from him. Main article: Pierre Pierre is a scarecrow wandering in search of pleasant music. He corresponds to the scarecrow's terminia of the same name, which is found in certain areas throughout Hyrule during his adult years in Ocarina of link's childhood and time. Scarecrows can be found on the first floor of the Observatory and in trading posts in West Clock Town. When the link speaks to him, he can teach him the song the hero composes himself. This song has a total of 8 notes and cannot be a note used in songs that are important in the quest for links. Pierre remembers the song throughout the three-day cycle, but when the link returns to the past, Pierre forgets it and the link must be taught to him once again. After you create a song to use, the link can be used to reach areas that you can't normally get. To do this, the link flies tall and turns blue in a specific area. The link can then play the Scarecrow song, so the Scarecrow appears where Tatli is. Link can later use his hook shots on the scarecrow and bring himself to that position. Pierre tells The Link about other ways to play a song of time to change the passage of time, unlike going back in time. By playing a song in inverted time, which is an inverted note, Link can slow down a very useful time because it has limited time. The first three songs of the double-played song, double-time, allow the link to move on time for 12 hours. Pierre has the same effect as this version of the song of the time, and if the link decides to dance with him, it can be activated. Main article: Professor Professor spends all his time in his laboratory off the coast of great bay. There, he has a number of experiments that keep his eyes open, focusing on the marine ecosystems of the Great Bay as a whole. He also One of his main concerns is to recover Lulu's eggs. The link should empty all of the eggs in one of his reserve tanks, and it remains to the researchers to figure out his disease. After collecting all 7, these eggs are hatched and developed with Zora tadpole. This tadpole floats at a certain depth to give the employee the look of the sheet music. Researchers are surprised by this development, and it asks what links it can possibly mean. There's not much to describe the researcher, and it doesn't explain just that he's a crazy old man who really cares about water and is interested in living in it. Main article: Receptionist is a young, green-haired woman with freckles found in the mayor's residence in Watch Town. She stands behind a desk located between the mayor's office and the drawing room in the lobby. She leads visitors, residents and people with promises to their offices. She can be seen at the desk for the first two days. Then, on the third day, she can't be seen behind her desk or anywhere else in Terminus. It is believed that the reason she left was to take refuge from the moon. She can't be seen anywhere else after this. Main article: Sakhon Sakhon is a turmin response from a suspicious man running in and out of a merchant's stall at The Hairul Castle Market. His terminia form is basically the same except this time he is a little more wicked at what he steals. Portrayed as a man with a smiling face by one character, Sacon has caused some confusion in the lives of a few Turkiains; The most prominent of the bomb shop owner's mother and café; As well as bombs by the store owner and the ajusa relationship. He steals the bomb shop owner's mother's bomb bag just after midnight on the first day (successfully stealing if the link doesn't interfere) and avoids the airflow. Link can retrieve the bomb bag again by slicing him with a knife, and he can also kill him if he causes the contents of the bag to explode by bombs, arrows, or hook shots. If the link kills Sakon, he can't get an explosive mask from his grandmother in exchange for stopping him from stealing them. Also, if The Link prevents Sakon from stealing his bag, he cannot make a snack with the café. If Sakon successfully stole the bomb bag, he could be seen selling it to a curious shopkeeper on the second night. He tries to deal with the owner to get a high payment for the stolen bag but ended up getting 50 rupees, much less than he demanded, to lead him to believe the owner was unfair to his price. He steals The Café's wedding mask, the Sun's mask, and Cafei (his child's form) headed to the great fairy of North Clock Town to overturn the curse. As a result, Cafei entered into his own compulsory exclusion. And until your fiance recovers the mask again. Cafey eventually follows him to find out where Sakon's lair is, but he's the only one who knows how to open the door, so he has to wait until he returns. When Sakon returns to his hideout at 6pm on his last day, Link and Cafei hide behind a nearby rock and wait for the door to open. When the door is fully opened, the café and the link go inside, and the café recovers the mask and activates Sacon's security system, which consists of a series of switches, doors and conveyor belts leading to the holes. Both Kafei and Link use teamwork and speed to prevent the mask from falling into the hole. If they fail, Sakon will be happy and declare that he cannot penetrate his security system. Sacon can be seen running in circles in the lower part of the valley in the Ikana Canyon Valley. When the link speaks to him he will try to steal the link's knife by asking him to see it. After the link gives him an answer, Tattle attacks The Sakho with anger and attacks forcing him to reveal some information to the hero about the two men who live atop Ikana Canyon. Sakon doesn't appear much except for certain side quests or scenes in the game. He doesn't appear in the ending credits, so i'm unsure what happened to him. Main article: Professor Shikashi is a friendly and wise astronomer found at the Astral Observatory, and the Turminian counterpart of an unnamed man in ocarina of time. Shikashi, known as the telescope person of some bombers, was able to use the route leading to his observatory and hideout. The observatory itself is located in Termina Field, and the bomber entrance is located in East Clocktown. Prof. Shikashi has been interested in the moon since he was a child, and he told Link that he needed to develop his interests when he was a child. Now he spends the day gazing at the moon with a telescope. He kept the moon's tears, a kind of moon's rock falling from the moon's snow, and he named himself. Shikashi allows the link to use the telescope. He also says that Link has much better manners than his mischievous friends on other days. Apparently referring to The Skull Kid, he says he threatened to break Shikashi's astronomical instruments. Main Article: Swamp Shooting Gallery Manager Swamp Shooting Gallery is one of two shooting galleries in Termina. This shooting gallery is located in a huge tree swamp on the way to Woodpole Mountain in Link, run by an accented manager and is the Turinian counterpart of the Castle town bazah owner. In this shooting game, the target you move is different from one in the clock town, and when a particular enemy is given a certain amount of points on the link: Crazy Scrub gives him 30 points, Guais gives him 60 points, and a small decu scrub and ulpo give him 100. Links to play and win prizes In the game, he must pay 20 rupees and cannot wear a mask because it is against the rules of the manager. The first prize he can get could be either a big trembling or a giant quiver, depending on whether he won the Big Quiber at the Watch Town Shooting Gallery. You must have a score of at least 1,500 points to receive this award. Once he wins that score, he can try to get the perfect score to get a second prize: a piece of mind. Main article: A swamp spider house man found in a swamp spider house located in Woodfall and cursed by the inhabitants of the house, Gold Skulltulas, due to his greed. At one point he encountered a strange man who gave him a mask of truth before entering the building, and he said that with this object, a link could find a large treasure inside the house where he found him. He left with his dog to find the treasure, but when he entered the house, he was cursed and became a skeleton tool because of greed. The only way to lift the curse is to kill 30 gold skelentoulas roaming deep inside. The man could not do this because of the curse. When the link came and entered the house, the man pleaded with the young hero to help him return the curse himself. At the man's request, Link went further home and diligently found the gold sculltulas inside. When he conquered all 30 of them, the curse disappeared and revived the man as his true form. When The Link returned after his victory over the spider, the man rewarded Him with a mask of truth given to him by a mysterious man. The link can be used to see the thoughts of animals, the stones scattered in the Thumina and Gossip Stones. When using masks on men's dogs, the link finds that a man's eyes are always filled with greed. Main article: Swamp Tourist Center Guide Swamp Tourist Center Guide is the person who runs the building found at the beginning of woodpole's swamp. He shares certain physical characteristics, but also makes some differences, is found outside the swamp with a swamp shooting gallery manager. The physical difference between the two is that the guide does not have a whisker that starts directly under the sideburns or lips. He has glasses or goggles that cover his eyes and what appears to be a hat on his head. Finally, he puts a ring on two ring fingers. The guide runs a picture contest and asks if he has a picture he'd show him when he first met the link. If he realizes that the link doesn't have a picture and doesn't know what he's talking about, he gets a box of cume pictographs and directs him to the other side of the building for a boat cruise to officially take part in a painting contest (this can only happen if Kume gets help from a mysterious forest). The link can get a piece of heart from this. If he gives the guide a picture of Decu Wang or Tingle. When the link gives him a picture of Tingle, he finds out that he is the son of a guide and believes that he is ashamed of his son's obsession with fairies and that it is because he is ruining him so much when he was a child. Main article: On any day a swordsman, Link can make his way to the West Clock Town to meet the swordsman. The swordsman says that he is a brave warrior and not even afraid of the moon. He has a strict attitude and can be difficult at the link. He sits on a small stage with his legs crossed and awaits worthy customers. He offers two types of training: a beginner's training course for one rupee, and an expert course for 10 rupees. The beginner course introduces links to general sword controls and how to use them. On the other hand, professional courses are more difficult. During the course, 10 logs come out of the floor. The link can destroy them anyway he wants, but to get the perfect score 30, the link must use the attack to jump to 10 of them all. If the link gets the perfect score, the swordsman will recognize the link as a master and give him a piece of mind. Last night, Link found the swordsman in his shop, crying and squatting, saying he didn't want to die. What a surprise. Text: Tayle Tattall's younger brother and a friend of the skeleton child. He helped his sister and skeleton kid ambush link at the beginning of the game and ran away with them. When he leaves with a skeleton child, he is separated from his sister and cannot be seen again until the end of the third day. When Link and Tatle finally catch up with them from the top of the clock tower, he quickly tells them how to defeat the Skeleton Kid and stop the moon from falling. In retaliation, the skeleton child beats him. Tael knows something is wrong with his friend, and he knows it's a mask to do the terrible things he's doing to Termina. He is more timid and innocent than his sister, and cannot withstand the abuse of his friends towards him. Awlhile this changed a little when the link finally summoned the Four Giants to help them. He's tired of running away from everything and wants to help link to stop Mayora's mask. Tattle decides to stop him and instead go to his place. Main article: Tizo T.O. is an Indigo go drummer and roommate of the late Mikau. Compared to other bandmates, Tizzo is the least involved in stories or special item collections. It is his knowledge that T.O. can contribute to the mission of the link. Tizo knows lulu's secrets. He says that the curse has corrupted Lulu because she has struggled in the Great Bay Temple, and that lulu is affected because of her role as a descendant from the temple's guardians. Otherwise, Tizo practiced his drums, playing cave songs at links to the past. All Tizo says it's obvious by saying that the link would have to cancel the Great Bay Temple to restore the Great Bay. Main article: Tingle is the first incarnation and appearance of the infamous character. Tingle is a 35-year-old man wearing strange, dancing, link and vaguely green stockings. He is obsessed with fairies, traits that have made a wish by his father, the Swamp Tourist Center guide, who tells him to act at his age (Tingle is not interested in work, but nevertheless sells maps to help him). He can be found floating in the sky with balloons in many areas of Termina, the link can pop balloons to bring him falling to the ground. When Link talks to him, Tingle asks him if he's a forest fairy. When the link says yes, Tingle claims that he is a fairy reincarnation and says he is the same as himself. Even at the age of 35, he says he hasn't brought a fairy yet, and he's lucky to have a fairy and should be a friend. Tingle agrees to sell cheap link maps as a sign of friendship, offering the cheapest prices on the map of the area you're talking to. Tingle's magical words (he made himself) Tingle. Tingle! Kulu-Limpal, he seems to be able to import his balloons once again. If the link speaks to Tingle again in different forms or while wearing a different mask than the one he met, he will only recognize the link because of his fairy and realize that his appearance is due to magic. At the end of the match, Tingle can be seen throwing confetti at The Snack and Cafe's wedding. Main article: Town Shooting Gallery Manager He is a Turminian opponent of The Hairul Castle Town Shooting Gallery Manager. His shooting gallery is located in East Clocktown near the South Clocktown exit. If the link wants a mini-game, he will have to pay a fee of 20 rupees. The rule about gameplay is that he has to paint the red octopus giving him points on his score. He should not hit the blue octopus or they will take time from the limited amount he has. When The Link beats a high score of 39, the manager gives him a bigger trembling to hold more arrows. After scoring 50 points in the game, the coach will reward him for the heart piece. The text sits in a treasure chest-shaped building in East Clock Town with a treasure chest shop manager (masked in Mayora) and a glorious award can be awarded from the inside. The manager who runs the shop is a purple-haired lover who can be seen running away from work. The objective of her game is to get to the treasure chest as soon as possible. At first glance, it seems pretty easy, there is nothing standing between you and your breasts. However, some of the blocks on the floor go up and block the path of the link to the treasure. The link must navigate this block to find one that will not rise to get the treasure. Treasures will be different for each form. Goron, or Zora, with what she charged for the link. The only person who is worth paying is the Goron link, it is 30 rupees, the reward is a piece of mind. Main Article: Twin Juggler Twin Juggler is part of Gorman's Celebrity Troupe. They are light comedians who have some problems in Termina and can punate it. The juggler is always found in The East Clock Town, juggling honey and darling shops and outside the Stockport Inn, and spending the night in the rooms on the top floor. They say it's their job to be optimistic and positive, while others are afraid of the coming apocalypse. Their jokes range from falling months to the kidnapping of Princess Deku. The Twin Juggler is the only performer in Gorman's troupe without entering the bomber's laptop, and there's nothing to get from them, except for lame puns with Gabor. The twin juggernauts left town before the last day, and could not be found later. Main Article: Jubora Zubora is a sharp blacksmith in Mountain Village. Jubora doesn't actually do physical labor, but he does talk and work. He is the kind of person who offers link coffee, and never comes alone. He has a brain in his relationship with Gabora, loud, incomprehensible, but a huge blacksmith. Jubora can temporarily and permanently improve the sword of the link. For 100 rupees, The Link can give Jubora a knife overnight and is expected to receive a razor sword the next day. Razor knives can double the damage of links, but only 100 hits. After that, the knife returns to The Koki knife, his offensive power returns to normal. Link requires a Gold dust bottle to permanently upgrade the knife. After The Link defeated Goth and spring returned to the Snowhead area, The Link can beat this gold dust by taking first place in the Goron race. If the link provides gold dust with a razor sword, zubora again agrees to forge the knife back, this time for free (Jubora keeps some of the gold dust for yourself). The next morning, the link can be returned for a gold leaf knife, a knife worth the problem. Zubora is only for business, but the upgrade that the link can get from him is very important. † It's only been a short time, but I feel like I've known you forever. — Zelda, M. Marora. † We'll never forget the day we spent together in Hairul... — Zelda, Masofa marjoram. † The Goddess of Time is protecting you. If you play a song of the time, she will help you. — Zelda, Mallora's mask. Mask.
